NON-GAAP MEASURES AND ADDITIONAL GAAP MEASURES

Throughout this document, reference is made to "Working Capital", "Adjusted EBITDA", and "churn" which are all non-IFRS measures. Management believes that Working Capital is a useful indicator of the Corporation's liquidity and its ability to meet its current obligations. While EBITDA, which is earnings before finance costs including unrealized gains and losses on financial instruments, tax, and depreciation and amortization, is a useful measure, management believes that Adjusted EBITDA is a more appropriate measure for comparing results from one period to another as Adjusted EBITDA normalizes earnings to exclude certain non-operating, non-cash, and extraordinary amounts. All these terms are defined below. Readers are cautioned that these non-IFRS measures may not be comparable to similar measures used by other companies. Readers are also cautioned not to view these non-IFRS financial measures as an alternative to financial measures calculated in accordance with IFRS.

NON-GAAP MEASURES DEFINITIONS

"Adjusted EBITDA" is a measure of the Corporation's operating profitability. Adjusted EBITDA provides an indication of the results generated by the Corporation's principal business activities prior to how these activities are financed (including mark-to-market movements of the convertible debenture values), assets are depreciated and amortized or how the results are taxed in various jurisdictions, prior to the effect of foreign exchange, other income and expenses, and non-cash share-based payment expense. Adjusted EBITDA is not intended to represent net earnings as calculated in accordance with IFRS.

Adjusted EBITDA is calculated as follows:

	Three months ended June 30,		Six months ended June 30,
($ Cdn thousands)	2024	2023	2024	2023
Net income (loss)	69	(484)	(310)	(1,283)

Other income	(23)	(1)	(169)	(139)
Adjusted EBITDA	(243)	(239)	(512)	(501)

"Working Capital" is used by management and the investment community to analyze the operating liquidity available to the Corporation. Working Capital is calculated based on current assets less current liabilities.

Working Capital is derived from the statements of financial positions and is calculated as follows:

ADDITIONAL GAAP MEASURES DEFINITIONS

"Annual Recurring Revenue (ARR)" is the Monthly Recurring Revenue multiplied by twelve.

"Funds Used in Operations" is used by management to analyze the funds generated by the Corporation's principal business activities prior to consideration of working capital, which is primarily made up of highly liquid balances. This balance is reported in the Statements of Cash Flows included in the cash provided by operating activities section.

"Gross Profit" is used by management to analyze overall and segmented operating performance. Gross Profit is not intended to represent an alternative to net earnings or other measures of financial performance calculated in accordance with IFRS. Gross Profit is calculated from the statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss) and from the segmented information contained in the notes to the financial statements. Gross Profit is defined as revenue less cost of revenue.

"Gross Profit Percentage" is used by management to analyze overall and segmented operating performance. Gross Profit Percentage is calculated from the statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss) and from the segmented information in the notes to the financial statements. Gross Profit Percentage is defined as Gross Profit divided by revenue.

"Monthly Recurring Revenue (MRR)" is the aggregate of a given month's recurring fees charged to clients.

"Subscription Revenue" consists of monthly recurring fees charged to clients for access to operate the Platform, software updates, new features and technical support.

"Enterprise Revenue" consists of monthly recurring fees charged to larger more established clients for access to operate the Platform, software updates, new features and technical support for the Corporations DealFlow Core product.
"Investment Services Revenue" consists of fees charged to clients on qualifying services and/or transactions processed through Katipult's Platform. While this revenue is expected to be recurring in nature, it will vary in size and timing as it is based on the volume and characteristics of the transactions processed.

"Integration Revenue" are charges to clients for services that are viewed by the Corporation to be one-time in nature and to new clients for the provision of regulatory consulting services, and marketing and customization services. The charges vary depending on the amount and complexity of the work involved and the nature of the client's needs.

Revenue

Over the last several quarters, the Corporation has been focusing on the enterprise market and has made significant progress in capturing well-established, well-reputed companies that can be used as references to spur and support additional sales.

When compared to the same period in 2023, subscription revenue for the three- and six-month period ended June 30, 2024 has decreased 4.8% and increased 0.8% due to churn of mostly smaller customers. Enterprise client revenue was $432 and $841 for the three- and six-month period ended June 30, 2024 (2023: $431 and $800).

In 2021 the Corporation launched a new revenue stream for providing investment transaction services. This revenue stream is the result of fees charged to clients on qualifying services and/or transactions processed through Katipult's Platform. This revenue will vary in size and timing as it is based on the volume and characteristics of the transactions processed. The Corporation reported investment services revenue of $27 for the three- and six-month period ended June 30, 2024 (2023: $54 and $67).

Integration revenue is non-recurring and fluctuates from quarter-to-quarter as it is dependent on the number of new customers brought on in the quarter, and the level of the client's understanding of regulatory requirements, the level of customer-facing customization required and issues needing to be addressed to make the client ready to [(1)] See Non-GAAP measures and additional GAAP measures onboard. The Corporation reported $nil integration revenue for the three- and six-month period June 30, 2024 (2023: $19).

Gross Profit

The gross profit percentage was 81.6% and 80.7% for the three- and six-month period ended June 30, 2024 (2023: 84.5% and 82.1%). The slightly lower margin is due to lower investment services revenue and high support costs required in supporting more sophisticated clients. The Corporation has maintained a gross profit percentage of over 70.0% since the fourth quarter of 2017.

Adjusted EBITDA and Net Income

Adjusted EBITDA losses were $243 and $512 respectively for the three- and six-month period June 30, 2024 (2023: $239 and 501). It is stable due to management's continuous focus on prudent expense management and operational efficiency.

The Corporation reported a net income and comprehensive income of $69 for the three-month period ended June 30, 2024, but reported net loss of $310 for the six-month period ended June 30, 2024 compared to in the comparative period of 2023 (2023: net loss $484 and $1,283). The decreased loss is due in large part to the non-cash revaluation of the 2018 Debentures, partially offset by higher non-cash finance costs from the accretion of the 2021 Debenture.

OUTLOOK

This Outlook and Guidance contains forward-looking statements that the Corporation does not intend, and does not assume any obligation, to update, except as required by law. The forward-looking information and statements may include:

- The current economic climate and its effect on the Corporation’s client base business;
- The Corporation’s ability to successfully acquire new customers;
- The Corporation’s ability to successfully implement its technology;
- Management’s assumptions regarding the sustainability of recurring revenue streams and the Corporation’s expected profitability; and
- The Corporation’s ability to repay its debt obligations, raise additional funds, and fund operations.

Katipult is continuing to progress in enhancing and expanding functionality in its core DealFlow product. Going forward, the Corporation will focus on continuing to add enterprise customers, growing its monthly recurring revenue (“MRR”) and adding new product capabilities to make private capital markets more efficient, transparent and fully digitized. The Corporation has not yet been able to generate the sales volumes required to create positive cash flows from operating activities.

The Corporation has incurred operating losses since inception and has historically relied on equity and debt financings to fund its operating losses. While the Corporation has previously been successful in raising external capital to fund its operations, there is no guarantee it will be successful in its efforts to raise additional financing; or if financing is available, that it will be on terms that are acceptable to the Corporation. Due to these factors, there is material uncertainty that casts doubt on the Corporation’s ability to continue as a going concern.

For the three- and six-month period ended June 30, 2024, the Corporation expensed $11 and $23 (2023: expense of $4 and recovery of $7) due to delays in the collection from two non-enterprise clients.

Included in SG&A expenses is a share-based payment expense of $7 and $13 for the three- and six-month period ended June 30, 2024, the expense is lower due to forfeiture of unvested options and the vesting timing of stock options (2023: $16 and $34).

Finance costs decreased for the three-month period ended June 30, 2024, but increased for the six-month period ended June 30, 2024, compared to the same period in the prior year mainly due to decreased interest on the 2018 Debentures and increased accretion on 2021 Convertible Debentures. The 2018 Debentures are hybrid contracts with multiple embedded derivatives. The Corporation has measured the entire hybrid contract at fair value with adjustments recorded in profit or loss.

In the second quarter of 2024, the Corporation entered into a secured promissory note. The accrued interest is payable upon maturity.

The interest on the 2018 Debentures is due to the compounding nature of the accrued interest. Interest will not accrue during the grace period from April 15, 2024 until November 30, 2024. The interest is a non-cash item prior to maturity.

In the first quarter of 2021, the Corporation issued the 2021 Debenture which results in the ongoing recognition of a non-cash accretion expense.

Other interest and charges are related to accretion on the Canadian Emergency Business Account ("CEBA") loan.

The decreased loss is due in large part to the non-cash revaluation of the 2018 Debentures, partially offset by higher non-cash finance costs from the accretion of the 2021 Debenture.

Funds provided by (used in) operations decreased for the three-month period ended June 30, 2024, but increased for the six-month period ended June 30, 2024, compared to the prior comparative period in 2023. This is largely related to the timing of milestone and annual payments from enterprise clients.

- Term Extension: The maturity date of the Amended Convertible Debentures has been extended to May 30th, 2027.
- Security: The Amended Convertible Debentures are secured against all the present and after-acquired personal property of the Corporation.
- Interest: The base interest rate has been reduced from 8.5% to 4%. The Amended Convertible Debentures are subject to interest rate adjustments if the Corporation fails to maintain a cash balance equal to its 12-month burn rate whereby the interest rate increases by 0.5% for each month of inadequate cash balance. The maximum interest rate, which was formerly 12% per annum compounded quarterly, is now adjusted to a maximum of 10% per annum compounded quarterly.
- Interest Grace Period: Interest will not accrue during the period from April 15, 2024 until November 30, 2024.
- Conversion Price: The conversion price has been reduced to $0.20 per common share of the Corporation.

The Corporation's ability to continue as a going concern is therefore dependent upon its ability to repay or renegotiate debt repayment terms. The Corporation's 2024 cash flow forecast assumes that it will meet the contractual criteria to invoice for milestone payments under an existing software implementation contract with a major customer, that the Corporation is able to collect receivables from its existing customers on a timely basis.

The Corporation has not yet been able to generate the sales volumes required to create positive cash flows from operating activities. The Corporation has incurred operating losses since inception and has historically relied on equity and debt financings to fund its operating losses. While the Corporation has previously been successful in raising external capital to fund its operations, there is no guarantee it will be successful in its efforts to raise additional financing; or if financing is available, that it will be on terms that are acceptable to the Corporation.

Due to these factors, there is material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt on the Corporation's ability to continue as a going concern. These financial statements do not include necessary adjustments to reflect the recoverability and classification of recorded assets and liabilities and related expenses that might be necessary should the Corporation be unable to continue as a going concern. Such adjustments could be material.

The Corporation considers the items included in capital to include shareholders' equity (deficiency) and convertible debentures. The Corporation manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic and business conditions, financing environment and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. In order to maintain or adjust its capital structure, the Corporation may issue new shares, new debt, or scale back the size and nature of its operations. The Corporation is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

Management regularly reviews its level of capital resources and actively manages its affairs. This review will consider factors such as the current economic environment, changes in demand for the Corporation's services, capital spending requirements, foreign exchange rates, working capital needs, and profitability of the Corporation's operations, any of which could materially affect the Corporation's ability to meet its obligations. n's services, capital spending requirements, foreign exchange rates, working capital needs, and profitability of the Corporation's operations, any of which could materially affect the Corporation's ability to meet its obligations.

Following the maturity date, interest will accrue at the rate of 25% per annum, such interest will be calculated daily in arrears and payable on demand of the holder.

In the event that the August 31, 2024 is reached and the principal amount and accrued interest under this Note have not been paid off in full, the Note and all obligations, rights and security interests under this Note shall be terminated and discharged, following which the remaining principal amount and accrued interest under this Note shall be added to the principal amount under the 2018 Debentures.

LOAN PAYABLE

Canadian Emergency Business Account ("CEBA") Loan

During the year ended December 31, 2021, the Corporation was approved for repayable financing of an additional $20 operating line of credit under the second phase of the CEBA loan program ("CEBA Loan 2"), also bearing interest at 0%.

The terms of the CEBA Loan 1 and CEBA Loan 2 are as follows:

- In January 2022, both lines of credit automatically converted to two-year term loans bearing interest at 0%, to be repaid on December 31, 2023. There is the option for the Corporation to extend the loans by two additional years on December 31, 2023, and if this extension is exercised, the term loans will mature on December 31, 2025, at which time the balance must be repaid in full.
- Both loans are interest-free until January 1, 2024. If the loans are extended, commencing January 1, 2024, interest will accrue on the outstanding balance at a rate of 5% per annum, payable monthly on the last day of each month.
- If the balance of the loans is repaid in full on or before January 18, 2024, $10 of each of the term loans will be forgiven (for a total of $20).

CEBA Loan 1 of $40 was initially recorded at the fair value of $15. The initial discount of $25 on recognition of the loan at fair value was recorded as deferred revenue and recognized as other income over the three-year term of the loan.

CEBA Loan 2 of $20 was initially recorded at the fair value of $7. The initial discount of $13 on recognition of the loan at fair value was recorded as deferred revenue and recognized as other income over the two-year term of the loan.

During the six-month period ended June 30, 2024, the Corporation was approved for repayable financing of a $40 business loan from a credit facility, bearing variable interest at prime rate plus 1.59% per annum. CONVERTIBLE DEBENTURES

(a) 2018 Convertible debentures

As at ($ Cdn thousands)	June 30, 2024	December 31, 2023
Balance at the beginning of period	3,964	3,273
Interest accrued during the period	171	435
Unrealized (gain) loss on convertible debentures	(498)	256
Balance at the end of the year	3,637	3,964
Face value of the convertible debentures at end of the period	3,000	3,000

On May 30, 2018, the Corporation issued convertible debentures ("2018 Debentures") with a principal balance of $3,000 maturing on May 30, 2023. On or after the maturity date, the holders may deliver a notice, at which point the principal and all accrued unpaid interest become due and payable six months after receiving such notice. The 2018 Debentures have therefore been presented as current on the Statement of Financial Position as at June 30, 2024.

The 2018 Debentures are hybrid contracts with multiple embedded derivatives. The Corporation has measured the entire hybrid contract at fair value with adjustments recorded to finance costs in the statements of operations and comprehensive loss.

The face value of the 2018 Debentures reconciles to the carrying amount as at June 30, 2024 and 2023 as follows:

As at ($ Cdn thousands)	June 30, 2024	December 31, 2023
Face value	3,000	3,000
Interest accrued	2,069	1,898
Face value plus accrued interest	5,069	4,898
Fair value adjustment	(1,432)	(934)
Balance at the end of the period	3,637	3,964

The 2018 Debentures have a variable interest charge based on the Corporation's cash burn rate.

The interest rate is the lesser of:

a. 8.50% plus (0.50% x number of Shortfall Months) compounded quarterly; or
b. 12.00% per annum compounded quarterly where Shortfall Months is equal to (twelve-(ending cash balance/three month average cash burn)).

During the three- and six-month period ended June 30, 2024, the Corporation's monthly cash burn rate was such that the accrued annual rate of interest payable was 12% (compounded quarterly). The $3,000 outstanding in 2018 Debentures can be converted into common shares at the election of debenture holders at any time at a conversion price of $0.51 per share.

As at June 30, 2024, the unpaid accrued interest payable was $2,069 (December 31, 2023: $1,898). The unpaid accrued interest payable can be converted to shares, at the election of the debenture holders, at any time, at the volume-weighted average trading price per share for common shares over ten consecutive trading days ending on the trading day before the conversion date.

The fair value of the 2018 Debentures is determined using a probability-weighted multi-scenario model based on the host liability and embedded derivatives of the instrument. The most significant factors in the computation of the fair value of this financial instrument as at June 30, 2024 are the fair values of the host liability and the conversion feature. The fair value of the host liability is determined using a discount rate of 39.4% (2023: 39.4%), interest payments of 12.0% up to April 15, 2024 (2023: 8.5% to 12.0%), and a remaining expected term of 1 year (2023: 1 year). The fair value of the conversion feature is determined using a Black-Scholes model with a volatility of 90% (2023: 90%), a risk-free rate of interest of 3.99% (2023: 4.96%), a stock price of $0.02 (2023: $0.09) per share, and a remaining expected life of 1 year (2023: 1 year), as at June 30, 2024.

Sensitivity analysis:

A $0.01 increase in the share price within the Black-Scholes model would result in an increase in the fair value of the outstanding principal of the 2018 Debentures of $5. A 1% increase in the discount rate would result in a decrease in the fair value of the outstanding principal 2018 Debentures of $26. Comparable decreases in each of the share price and discount rate would result in a comparable opposite change in the fair value of the outstanding principal of the 2018 Debentures.

Subsequent to the quarter end the Corporation announced on July 18, 2024, key changes to 2018 convertible debentures as follows:

- Term Extension: The maturity date of the Amended Convertible Debentures has been extended to May 30th, 2027.
- Security: The Amended Convertible Debentures are secured against all the present and after-acquired personal property of the Corporation.
- Interest: The base interest rate has been reduced from 8.5% to 4%. The Amended Convertible Debentures are subject to interest rate adjustments if the Corporation fails to maintain a cash balance equal to its 12-month burn rate whereby the interest rate increases by 0.5% for each month of inadequate cash balance. The maximum interest rate, which was formerly 12% per annum compounded quarterly, is now adjusted to a maximum of 10% per annum compounded quarterly.
- Interest Grace Period: Interest will not accrue during the period from April 15, 2024 until November 30, 2024.
- Conversion Price: The conversion price has been reduced to $0.20 per common share of the Corporation.

Accretion on convertible debenture	1,144	871
Debenture liability balance at the end of the period	1,602	1,329

On March 5, 2021, the Corporation issued a convertible debenture ("2021 Debenture") for $3,000. The 2021 Debenture is non-interest bearing, with a maturity date of March 5, 2026. The 2021 Debenture is convertible to common shares at a conversion price of $0.23 per share. In addition, the purchaser received 12,000,000 warrants that can each be converted to one common share of the Corporation at a purchase price of $0.25 per share. The warrants expire March 5, 2026. The Corporation incurred $62 in financing costs related to legal and transaction processing charges.

The initial amount recognized for the detachable warrants and the 2021 Debenture was determined by applying the relative fair value approach. The fair value of the detachable warrants was estimated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The fair value of the 2021 Debenture was determined by estimating the fair values of both the debt component and conversion feature; the debt component by discounting the expected future cash flows at a market rate of interest of 45.0% for a comparable debt instrument without a conversion feature and the conversion feature using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. This resulted in $1,188 being assigned to the detachable warrants and $1,750 being assigned to the 2021 Debenture (net of transaction costs). The subsequent bifurcation of the 2021 Debenture into its liability and equity components was determined following the residual approach for the equity component; this resulted in an initial liability of $468 and the remaining $1,292 being allocated to the equity conversion feature (net of transaction costs).

The fair value of the detachable warrants and conversion feature was determined using a Black-Scholes model with a volatility of 90%, a risk-free rate of interest of 0.90%, a stock price of $0.30 per share, and a remaining expected life of 5.0 years, as at March 5, 2021.
